With reference to paras 4 supra

The I. G. of Police has recommended the grant of deputation allowances to the officials of the Bangalore A.R.P. office on the ground that they have heavy work & have to stay late. The last two in the list are only acting officials & in view of their low qualifications, the pay given to them viz Rs 30/- cannot perhaps be considered low.

The other four hold permanent posts & these persons are getting more pay in their acting posts in the A.R.P. Instead of giving them the pay in the sanctioned posts in the A.R.P. office + an allowance, they may be, if allowed, given their own permanent pay plus a deputation allowance equal to 20% of that pay.

DEPUTATION ALLOWANCE TO THE MINISTERIAL STAFF OF THE A.R.P. OFFICE.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that the ministerial staff posted for work in the A.R.P. Office, Bangalore City have to be present early and late and for long hours in the office in addition to the heavy work they are having. If it were only an increase in work, the existing staff could have been given relief by increasing the staff but the nature of work is such that this can be compensated for only by extra allowances to the same staff. I recommend, therefore, that they may be given a deputation allowance of 20% of the sanctioned pay as in the case of Census Department.

The extra cost involved will be Rs.49/- as detailed below and may be sanctioned with effect from the date of their report in this office.

Sl.No.	Post.	Sanctioned Pay.	Deputation allowance.
1)	Head Clerk.	Rs.75/-	Rs.15/-
2)	Accountant.	Rs.50/-	Rs.10/-

		Total.	Rs.49/-.

A.C. 323/42.43

With reference to your Memo No.194/W dated 11th July 1942, communicating the orders of Government on my proposal to pay a deputation allowance to the ministerial staff of the A.R.P. Office, I have the honour to state that I am obliged to submit a modified recommendation for the re-consideration of Government. It will be seen from the enclosed Memo arranging the shifts of duties for the officials in the months of June & July 1942, that every one of them have got to work over-time so that some official or other may be on duty in the A.R.P. office all the 24 hours. They have also to sleep in the office by turns. The duties required of them are thus much more taxing than those of officials in any other office. I recommend, therefore, that each official may be paid a uniform duty allowance of Rs.10/- a month, irrespective of his pay and that menials who are also required to work on shifts and who are required to be on night duty may be paid a uniform allowance of Rs.3/- per mensem. I may also state that these recommendations are on the lines of those in the Civil & Military Station, except that in the case of menials, I have reduced the allowance from Rs.5/- to Rs.3/- per mensem.

Forwarded with compliments. I agree entirely.

2. Letter No.Ac.9/41-42 dated 5th February 1942 from the Inspector General of Police submitting proposals for augmenting the Staff of the A.R.P. Office.

ORDER No.P.3905-7./PA 127-41-2 dated 26th July 1942

The Inspector General of Police reports that it was so far possible to carry on the A. R.P. Office with Staff referred to in the Government Order read above, because the Office of the Chief Rationing (who was also the A. R.P. Controller for Bangalore City) was in the same building and the accounts work was looked after by his Office and now that the Special A. R.P. Officer is about to take over the duties of the A. R.P. Controller for Bangalore City in addition to his own duties assisted by a Deputy Comptroller for the said City and that the Office of the Chief Rationing Authority is to be moved elsewhere, it is urgently necessary to provide him with an adequate clerical and menial Staff to enable him to discharge his greatly increased responsibilities.

He states that for the combined Offices of the Special A. R.P. Officer and Controller for Bangalore City a Staff consisting of the marginally noted* strength necessary and that an additional Clerk on Rs.30/- is necessary for being given to the Chief Warden, Bangalore City.

*
1. Clerk on Rs.75/-.
1. Clerk on Rs.50/-.
3. Clerks on Rs.30/-.
1 Daffedar on Rs.15/-.
6 Peons on Rs.11/-.
1 " on Rs.13/-.

He

He proposes therefore to take over and absorb the existing *Staff of the Chief Rationing authority and entertain afresh only the remaining Staff as noted in the margin £ * Staff of the Chief Rationing authority and entertain afresh only the remaining Staff as noted in the margin @ margin at a cost of Rs.151/- per mensem.
